APGFCU is not responsible for any typographical errors in any scholarship material; stolen, lost, late, misdirected, damaged, incomplete or illegible scholarship applications or essays; or applications processed late, incorrectly or lost due to computer, electronic malfunction or human error.

RULES AND REGULATIONS:

- The Education Director will evaluate and score each scholarship package individually and make recommendations to the APGFCU volunteer Community Involvement Committee for final judging and approval of the scholarship winners. Scoring is as follows:

Essay: 1–5 points (content, originality, grammar, punctuation, spelling and within defined word count.)

GPA: 4.00 & over = 4 points

3.75 – 3.99 = 3 points

3.50 – 3.74 = 2 points

3.00 – 3.49 = 1 point

Activity outside of school curriculum: 1 point for each qualifying criteria.

- All submitted essays will become the property of APGFCU and may be included in future APGFCU newsletters, website, brochures, trade journals, newspapers, and other forms of media publication. By submitting and signing the application, Applicant, or if a minor, Applicant's parent or legal guardian, consents and authorizes the use of the Applicant's name and photograph in any APGFCU publication, advertisement, publicity, correspondence and/or disclosure.
- Applicant must provide APGFCU with proof of admission from the intended school where the scholarship award is to be applied. The scholarships will be awarded in check form, payable to the recipient and school.
- Financial need is NOT a factor in applicant's evaluation.
- Scholarships are limited to a one-time award. Decision of the judges is final.
- The scholarship winners will be announced by May 1st and awarded by May 31st each year.
- APGFCU staff, board members, volunteers, and their immediate family members are NOT eligible for this scholarship.
