We’ve got a great way to make your money work a lot harder.

Our new High Yield Checking account helps you wield a big yield with a whopping 2.50% APY* on balances up to $10,000! It’s easy to open, and there’s no monthly maintenance fee.

Get High Yield Checking today and start earning big!
Visit apgfcu.com/HighYield to learn more.

*Annual Percentage Yield (APY) as of 3/1/2019. If your account meets the criteria, you will earn 2.50% Annual Percentage Yield (APY) on balances up to $10,000 and 0.15% APY on balances of $10,000.01 and higher. Balances on accounts that fail to meet the account requirements for a given month will earn 0.05% APY. APY is accurate as of last dividend declaration date. The rate may change after account opening. No minimum balance requirements. No monthly maintenance fees or penalties. Fees may reduce earnings on the account. High Yield Checking is limited to one per member (per membership). To earn the higher rate, you must opt out of paper statements from APGFCU, have an ongoing qualifying direct deposit of at least $200 per month into your High Yield Checking account, and complete a minimum of 15 qualifying Point-of-Sale (POS) transactions per month using an APGFCU Visa Debit Card linked to the High Yield Checking Account. A qualifying Direct Deposit is an electronic credit of your salary, pension, Social Security, or other regular monthly income deposited to your account by your employer or an outside agency. Transactions that do not qualify as a Direct Deposit include, but are not limited to, transfers from one account to another, deposits from an internet payment service, and deposits made at an ATM. To qualify, debit card transactions must process, post, and clear within the calendar month. Minimum transaction is $1.00. Debit card transactions may take one or more business days from the transaction date to post to an account from the date the transaction is made. Both PIN and signature POS transactions qualify. ATM transactions do not qualify. Membership eligibility applies.
Ten Tips to Reduce Distracted Driving

More than 40,000 Americans died on the roads in 2016, the most significant increase in deaths over a two-year period in more than 50 years. Whether someone you love has been known to text and drive, or you have found yourself distracted behind the wheel, these tips can help avoid dangerous activity on the road.

1. Stow your phone. Turning off the phone and putting it in “do not disturb” mode can help remove the temptation to browse online at a red light or respond right away to a text message.

2. Vow not to multi-task. Anything that occupies your mind or vision can be a distraction behind the wheel. Make time at home to eat meals or put on makeup, so you can focus on the road.

3. Don’t be a distraction. Avoid calling or texting family members and friends when you know they are driving to keep from distracting them.

4. Talk to your employer. Responding to texts or taking calls for work while driving can be dangerous. Encourage your employer to have a distracted driving policy that includes waiting to talk with employees until they are safely parked.

5. Keep kids and pets safe. Make sure kids are in proper car seats and that pets stay secured in their zone in the back of your vehicle. It can also help reduce distractions if pets are not roaming about the car.

6. Set a good example. Parents can model good behavior for their children by demonstrating attentive driving. Avoid texting, eating, grooming or calling someone while behind the wheel.

7. Plan your route before you go. Programming your navigation system while you drive can take your eyes off the road. It’s better to ask a passenger to do it or to enter your destination before you leave home.

8. Speak up. If you see someone texting or otherwise driving while distracted, say something and let them know that you are not comfortable with that behavior. Encourage your children to do the same when they are passengers in a friend’s car. It could save a life.

9. Set rules of the road. Consider restricting the number of passengers until your teen or new driver gains experience behind the wheel.

10. Avoid reaching. Resist the urge to reach for items if they fall while driving. Taking your eyes off the road to search for an item can make you more likely to have an accident.

Spruce up Your Home with a Home Equity Loan or Line

The snow has melted and small signs of spring are popping up all over. Signs of winter wear and tear may be popping up around your home, as well.

If the winter weather did a number on your home, let us help you get the funds you need to make those repairs or improvements. Whether you need to repair or replace your roof, build a new shed or deck, or replace your gutters, APGFCU is your resource for a low-rate home equity loan or line of credit.

Why choose a home equity loan or line for home repairs? With a home equity loan you can stretch the cost of those high-dollar repairs and improvements over a longer period of time. Choose a low, fixed-rate loan to borrow a lump sum and make budgeting easy with a fixed monthly payment. Or, you can choose a home equity line, which will allow you to borrow as much as you need up to your approved credit line whenever you need it. Plus you may be able to deduct the interest paid on your home equity loan or line if you’ve used the funds to pay for home improvements or repairs*.

Compare your options to see which loan is right for you at apgfcu.com/HomeEquity.

*Consult your tax advisor.

All loans are subject to credit approval.

Charles N. Alston, Sr.

Inducted into AACUC Hall of Fame

On March 12, APGFCU Board Member Charles N. Alston, Sr. was inducted into the African American Credit Union Coalition (AACUC) Hall of Fame. The AACUC is a non-profit organization of African-American and African descent professionals and volunteers in the credit union movement. Mr. Alston has shown a commitment to the movement and to APGFCU as a volunteer for 30 years. He currently serves on the board of directors and as chairman of the credit appeals committee for APGFCU.

Embracing the People Helping People philosophy of the credit union movement, Mr. Alston led the effort to create a local chapter of Habitat for Humanity in the credit union’s field of membership. In its 25-year history, Habitat for Humanity Susquehanna has completed over 100 construction projects, and has served more than 700 families through its homeownership, repair and financial literacy programs.

His continued support and service to APGFCU and organizations like Habitat for Humanity make this a well-deserved award.

Congratulations, Mr. Alston!
